Camper's fiddle skill level

Beginner Intermediate Advanced Expert

The following is a brief description of the workshop levels given at the camp.

Beginner For participants of all ages who have studied the fiddle for at least two years, and who learn at a slower pace in a small group setting

Intermediate For those who have a firm grasp of fiddle technique, who are able to play by ear, and who want to learn the traditional Québécois style.

Advanced For those who have mastered the violin and who wish to improve their skills and gain insight into traditional Québécois music

Expert For those wanting to deepen their knowledge of "québécois répertoire". This class is ideal for those wanting to work on improvisation and on specific ornamentation in order to give their pieces a softer and more natural sound.
